OUR COMPANY

At Management Recruiters of Tallahassee (MRT), we specialize in recruiting for the manufacturing industry, focusing on plastics, metals, and rubber across sectors such as industrial and consumer goods, medical devices, packaging, military/defense, automotive, and aerospace. With nearly 40 years of experience, we offer tailored solutions, including retained, engaged, and interim staffing, to meet your hiring needs.

Our global network and advanced recruiting technology enable us to efficiently tap into a vast talent pool. We pride ourselves on industry-specific expertise, with specialized recruiters for each area of manufacturing, and maintain daily contact with industry leaders to stay aligned with market trends.

Our clients return because of the trusted relationships we've built, with 90% maintaining long-term partnerships. MRT is committed to delivering high-impact results that address immediate needs and drive long-term growth.
